PARTY GAME

COMMUNICATION

WILL YOU HAVE THE LAST WORD?

Complete more than 1600 funny expressions! Konito? The party game you will love!

- Bridget Jone's...?
- For better or...?
- Some like it...?

If you replied "Diary", "For Worse" and "Hot", congratulations! You succeeded in answering a green, easy card and you get to move your pawn one space forward...

The more expressions you complete the more you advance on the board. Sounds easy, doesn't it?

But if you don't know the answer, don't worry: your team-mate can give you hints by mimicking, humming, or well, doing whatever he wants except reading you the answer!

You can add challenge cards to spice up the game, you choose from three difficulty levels of question cards and you get an easy-to-learn, very fun game.

Of course, all questions must be answered within a time limit and everyone knows that Time is...?
